

Registration form for COMPUTE course
“Domain decomposition methods”

The course “Domain decomposition methods” will be given in the first study period of the autumn term 2017. Students of all backgrounds are invited to register for the course. Basic knowledge of one programming language is highly recommended. More details about the course can be found at the COMPUTE website <http://cbbp.thep.lu.se/Compute/Courses.php>.

Spaces in the course are limited, so please register as soon as possible to increase your chances of being admitted. Please return this form by Friday June 16, 2017. You must be enrolled in the COMPUTE research school to register for the course.
